The Leipzig Centre for the History and Culture of East Central Europe (GWZO) is affiliated to the University of Leipzig. Its basic funding is provided by the Free State of Saxony, the funding of research projects comes primarily from the German Federal Ministry for Education and Research. The Centre carries out comparative and interdisciplinary research on the historical region bordering the Baltic, the Black and the Adriatic Seas. The Centre's research focus is on culture, with history, art history, archaeology, literary and media studies, philology and social anthropology as core disciplines. In its activities GWZO relies on a wide network of national as well as international cooperations.
